

GODDARD 40, KIMBALL U. 21

Another Fast Game Added to Seminary's Victories

IN CHURCH STREET GYM.

Spaulding, Heath and Buck Tossed in Baskets Easily, While the Visitors
Were Rather Poor in That Department.

The Goddard seminary basketball team added another victory to its unbroken string by defeating the strong Kimball Union academy team of Meriden, N. H., in the Church street gymnasium last evening by a score of 40 to 21. K. U. A. exhibited good team work and clever passing, but was badly outclassed by the local school in basket shooting.

Spaulding, Heath and Buck, the latter of whom relieved Heath in the last period, got in their usual brilliant work at basket throwing, and Hiddle also made four good baskets. Goddard was the swifter on its feet, and the two forwards made good every opportunity to score, while the visitors covered fairly well and by good passing made many chances to score, but had a poor eye for the basket.

The first period ended 16 to 5 in Goddard's favor, the second period 28 to 13 and in the last Buck made four baskets Spaulding and Hiddle one each for the locals, while the visitors added three from the floor and two from fouls. It was a fast, clean game, and but few fouls were made.

SCHOOL HOUSE BURNED.

South Dorset Fire May Have Been of Incendiary Origin.

Manchester, Feb. 4.—The school house in South Dorset was destroyed by fire at 6 o'clock Sunday morning. When the fire was discovered a heavy wind was blowing and it was impossible to fight it effectually. The school house was a two-story frame building, seating forty pupils.

CATARRH YIELDS

To Healing Of Hyomei—Sold Under Guarantee By Red Cross Pharmacy.

Catarrh is the most prevalent disease known to humanity. Probably ninety per cent. of the people in this country suffer at one time or another with this common disease.

It is a germ disease and hence can be cured only by some method that will reach and destroy the germ. This is best found in Hyomei, which may be called the direct method of treating catarrh, as its mechanism, taken in with the air you breathe, goes directly to every air cell in the nose, throat and lungs; kills all catarrhal germs and vitalizes the tissues so as to render catarrh no longer possible.

The unique way in which Hyomei is sold should dispel all doubt as to its curative properties, for the Red Cross pharmacy give their absolute guarantee to refund the price to any catarrh sufferer that Hyomei fails to benefit. You do not risk a cent in testing its healing powers. What offer could be more fair to you than this, where a leading druggist takes all the risk of Hyomei giving satisfaction, and leaves you to be the judge.

HARVARD MAN TRIES SUICIDE.

Over-Study and Ill Health Said to Be Cause.

Boston, Feb. 4.—Robert J. Minot of Dover, Me., a Harvard freshman, twenty-two years old, shot and seriously wounded himself in his room, at No. 10 Holyoke dormitory, Cambridge, yesterday afternoon. The police report on the case says the young man attempted suicide by overstudy, he said to have caused it. Minot is now in the Stillman infirmary, in a serious condition.

Wilson as secretary-treasurer of the organization. The official canvass was completed last night. Ryan resigned the office of secretary-treasurer of the Illinois Mine Workers to enter the race for the three national offices. He is elected by an overwhelming vote.

EARTHQUAKE OF SLIGHT INTENSITY.

Tremors of Far-off Disturbance Recorded at Washington for an Hour.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—The weather bureau yesterday issued the following earthquake bulletin:

"An earthquake of slight intensity from a distant origin was recorded on the seismographs at the weather bureau on the afternoon of February 1, beginning at 6 hours 19 minutes 11 seconds P. M. 75th meridian time."

The bulletin adds that perceptible tremors were recorded for nearly an hour. The distance of the origin from Washington is estimated to be about 3,800 miles and the marked dissimilarity between the east and west and the north and south components of motion suggest that the line of propagation at Washington area nearly or about east and west.

"NOT A DROP OF WATER IN ANY RAILROAD STOCK."

So Avers President Elliott of The Northern Pacific Road.

Lewiston, Idaho, Feb. 4.—Blaming antitrust legislation for the cessation in railroad building, except on projects well under way, President Howard Elliott of the Northern Pacific railroad said:

"Not satisfied with the have already wrought by extreme and unwise statements, President Roosevelt has now made another attack on corporations. His recommendations for federal control of stock issues of corporations is so rabid as to be alarming."

This talk about watered railroad stock is untrue. There is not a single drop of water in any of the railroad stocks of the country. Take the Northern Pacific for an instance of the absence of water; no better state of over-capitalization."

TARPON TACTICS.

Wonderful Feats, Flights and Leaps of the Silver King.

In the big parson can be bent by a shark from near the bottom of the channel and should be dashed for with fifty feet of line and a heavy sinker. In shallow water the tarpon leaps high in air the instant he feels the hook, but in the pass he often comes to the surface. More than once when I had come to fear that my tarpon was a shark he has suddenly shot above the surface like a bullet from a gun and in the first wild shake of his head thrown hook and bait fifty feet in the air, and one even sent a head once leaping sinker flying over my head from nearly twice that distance. Other tarpon when struck came straight up from the bottom, one grazing our gunboat as he rose and another leaping over the stern of the canoe. As soon as a tarpon was less tired than we had assumed. On that occasion we swam home, and he had a good man story to tell his friends.

POLITICS IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Has the Bay State Tatt Campaign Had a Second Selback?

It is believed that former Congressman Samuel L. Powers' campaign for Tatt in Massachusetts has had a setback, due to some news from Washington. That is the understanding here to-day among members of the Massachusetts delegation.

Senator Lodge and Crane had a long conference here regarding Mr. Powers' programme. Senator Lodge still insists that he is keeping his hands off in Massachusetts, but he discussed the situation fully with Senator Crane and the Massachusetts Republicans here understand that Mr. Lodge has had some communication with Mr. Powers.

There appears to be a complete understanding again with reference to Massachusetts, which is taken as meaning that matters have been arranged satisfactory to Senator Crane.

TERRIBLE LIQUOR CRAVING

How Urine Destroys All Desire For Whiskey and Beer.

The terrible craving for liquor is a symptom of disease and to overcome it, the disease itself should be treated in a scientific way. When one has used whiskey, beer or other stimulants for a long time, the nerve cells have become accustomed to the effects of the stimulants and demand liquor in order to perform their duties. If the nerve cells are properly treated, the craving for liquor will be destroyed.

It is in this way that Urine cures alcoholism, by supplying the nerve cells with the strength needed, thus destroying the desire for liquor. It eradicates every particle of the terrible liquor craving, imparts new strength and vigor to the whole system, and restores the general health. Treatise on "Drunkennes," free on request. The Urine Co., Washington, D. C.

So successful has Urine been that in every box is a registered guarantee which entitles you to a refund of your money if Urine fails to effect a cure. Never before was a treatment for the liquor habit so infallible. A guarantee like this shows the faith of the discoverer of Urine and the agents who handle it, the leading druggists everywhere.

Urine is in two forms, No. 1 which can be given secretly in food or drink. No. 2 in pill form for those who desire to be cured. Either form costs $1 per box, and both are sold under the liberal guarantee that your money will be refunded if Urine fails to cure.

TARPOON TACTICS.

Wonderful Feats, Flights and Leaps of the Silver King.

In the big parson can be bent by a shark from near the bottom of the channel and should be dashed for with fifty feet of line and a heavy sinker. In shallow water the tarpon leaps high in air the instant he feels the hook, but in the pass he often comes to the surface. More than once when I had come to fear that my tarpon was a shark he has suddenly shot above the surface like a bullet from a gun and in the first wild shake of his head thrown hook and bait fifty feet in the air, and one even sent a head once leaping sinker flying over my head from nearly twice that distance. Other tarpon when struck came straight up from the bottom, one grazing our gunboat as he rose and another leaping over the stern of the canoe. As soon as a tarpon was less tired than we had assumed. On that occasion we swam home, and he had a good man story to tell his friends.

It had been counted a poor year for tarpon, yet in fifteen consecutive days of fishing we were fast to forty-four tarpon, each of which had jumped for us from one to twelve times. This high water mark of twelve jumps was made by a tarpon which was stimulated to his leaping efforts by the presence of a pursuing shark, and the twelfth jump was a double number. There was commotion in the crimsoned water, new vigor at the other end of the line, and it was an hour later when I finally landed on a sand bar a shark with an aldermanic stomach. A knife drawn across this distended organ disclosed the tarpon in sections, with the hook still fast in his jaw, and enabled the canny man to photograph together the subjects he had recently photographed separately. Although this shark was only one-fifth the size of our big hammerhead, yet he made but two bites of his victim.

Our work at Boca Grande ended with the red letter day of the season of all seasons. I was fishing in the pass with fifty feet of line and the bait was directly under the canoe when a tarpon struck, quickly carried away a hundred more feet of line and then swam so swiftly toward me that I feared from the foreshore line that he had escaped. Then, fifty feet from the canoe, there shot into the air a giant tarpon, measuring, as we learned afterward, an even seven feet. Up, up, up, he rose until the camera seemed to be pointed at the zenith, and before the rattled camera man could get his aim the silver king had turned gracefully in the air and was plunging downward. The captain swears that he saw, swinging clear of the water, the ribbon which marked twenty-five feet on the line as it hung plumb down from the tarpon.

Once I gave my own estimate of the height of the jump to a group of friends and after a glance at their gripped expressions appealed to the one of most experience on the coast and with the tarpon. After a single moment of hesitation he remarked firmly: "We fishermen must stand together. I believe the story."—A. W. Dimock in Appleton's.

Wooden Almanacs.

An antiquary in Chicago took a curiously engraved block of wood from a case.

"Here is an original almanac, a Sax on one." The engraved figures forecast the new moons and full moons and lunar changes for the year; hence, being devoted to lunar matters, the Sax on block was called an "al-moon-wood," or "observation of all the moons."

"From al-moon-wood our word almanac comes."

Usual Result.

"Well," asked the motorman, "did you manage to collect your little bill from that conductor?"

"No," answered the disgusted passenger. "I got tired trying to collect it at his house, and the other day I caught him on his car."

"What did he do?"

"The same thing as usual—put me off."

The only good the act had done had been to protect good employers against unscrupulous competition.
